

Psalm 119.105-112

REFRAIN:

Barbara Griffin

Your word, your word is a lantern to my feet, and a light to my path.

Henry Lawes (1595-1662)

<sup>105</sup> Your word is a lantern | to my | feet:
and a | light | to my | path.

<sup>106</sup> I have vowed and | sworn an | oath:
to | keep your | righteous | judgements.

<sup>107</sup> I have been afflicted be- | yond | measure:
Lord, give me life ac- | cording | to your | word.

and | teach | me your | judgements. REFRAIN

<sup>109</sup> I take my life in my | hands con- | tinually:
yet I do | not for- | get your | law.

<sup>110</sup> The wicked have laid a | snare | for me:
but I have not | strayed | from your | precepts.

<sup>111</sup> Your commands are my in- | heritance . for | ever:
they are the | joy | of my | heart.

<sup>112</sup> I have set my heart to ful- | fil your | statutes:
always, | even | to the | end. REFRAIN
